

record service

A software function that captures, stores, retrieves, displays, communicates or processes electronic health records.

Notes

- Record service are typically specific to the design of a specific clinical information system as this affect the nature of the services required to capture, store, retrieve, display and process records.
- Record services interact with terminology services to support capture, retrieval and processing of SNOMED CT encoded data.

Related Links

- Terminology service
- Implementation Services: Service architecture