

range constraint

A set of one or more rules that define the concept model range for a specific attribute.

Notes

- Range constraints are specified using expression constraint language.
- A concept model range is a set of values that the concept model permits to be applied to a specific attribute.